A Liberal English Opinion

The London ... has an article on the Presidential ... in this country in which the issues ... thus summed up

Nothing has we believe impressed ... more deeply in the minds of the Northern people ... than the evidence that there has not existed and ... does not exist in the South ... Southern States ... any ... the ... of ... people ... the ... and ... of the ... North ... the ... But two alternatives, military occupation for a term of years, or to insist on negro suffrage which will secure the loyalty of the States and completely prevent any return to the old caste laws though an expedient which is no doubt as we have always admitted a coarse and dangerous remedy for a still more dangerous disease. This, however is the remedy which on the whole the Northern Republicans think the mildest and safest, and they have accordingly decided upon it as their platform and are indorsing it most vigorously at the polls ... say that it is unconstitutional appears to us precisely the same as saying that the war itself was unconstitutional (which very possibly it was). To pay in blood and money for the most tremendous war the world has known and then to scruple at dictating the only forms likely to secure the Union against another war and fiercer internal divisions than ever is a piece of legal folly ... refined for a great people to appreciate or understand We are sincerely glad to see that there is no danger of the act of popular weakness to which our able correspondent ...

A Yankee ... evidently ... All the signs seem to promise a great triumph at the polls not only for Gen Grant personally but for the Republican policy toward the South of which he is the representative

INTERCEPTED TELEGRAMS One of the San ... reporters who nefariously tapped the grape vine telegraph recently secured the following private telegrams which we impolitely publish as an inside view of the situation since election

New York, Oct 14
To H Seymour ... Pennsylvania Ohio Indiana and Nebraska have gone Republican
A BELMONT
National Democratic Committee

... Oct 14
To George H Pendleton As everybody seems to want Grant for President what do you think of ... withdrawing in his favor? It's terrible and I have wept all night but I see no better course ...
HORATIO SEYMOUR

To H Seymour Don't withdraw ... now ... to punish the people ... If on the 4th of November you want proof that you have been a candidate I will make oath to the fact

To ... Bascom's ..., which went ... Ohio River ... with a couple of hundred ... from this ... a few votes for the Ohio Democracy ... He says ... that ... Ohio's gone for Grant that Pennsylvany and Indiany and ... them ... which the Seymore Democracy ... What's up? The Corners is in ... Fourteen ... niggers which we strung up in anticipation of ... triumphs at the North had to be cut down ... when Bascom's ... brought the bad news, and they are now insultin and outragin this ... community by yelling for Grant ... SUICIDE OF MISS CROCKER, DAUGHTER OF THE LATE GENERAL CROCKER, OF IOWA — The Des Moines (Iowa) Register of October 14th gives the following particulars of the suicide of the daughter of General Crocker

In our Sunday's issue we mentioned the unaccountable disappearance of Miss Ada Crocker, and with it the information that some of her wearing apparel had been found on the river's bank Saturday evening two miles above town pointing to the fearful suspicion that the missing girl had buried herself in a watery grave in Des Moines Sunday morning the river was dragged immediately by the spot where her tracks led to the water's edge The body was found only some ... feet away from the place of entering the stream and although it had lain in the water two days and two nights it was perfectly free from blemish or bloat the face natural and nothing but one broken finger indicating the violent death The corpse was taken to the desolate home of her mother and the funeral took place at 10 o'clock yesterday attended by a large train of truly sympathizing friends

Miss Crocker was ... years old a girl of intelligence and promise the daughter of Iowa's most gallant soldier the late General M M Crocker The family can give no reason for the mad act Her home was pleasant and perfectly loved by her She had around her life every harm ... living and protection The morning she plunged herself into death she left home for school apparently in buoyant spirits Before going she had been very lively and happy hearted and passed out of the door with her school satchel and dinner pail in hand singing a merry tune and went schoolward blithesome and gay Instead of going to the school house she went to the river her footsteps plainly showing that she stopped at a point where the water was seven feet deep There she ... the ... portion of her clothing ... floating ... Shawl bonnet and skirt were wrapped up in a bundle and ... the basket containing her dinner and school books Along the river were footsteps up and down the bank where she walked ... in a perturbed struggle of life or death or seeking a deeper point in the water Her clothing was discovered by some gentlemen of this city on a fishing excursion and the discovery of the school books with the unfortunate girl's name written in them was the first flashing proof of the dreadful reality

Diabolical Sensation

HIS MAJESTY MAKES HIS APPEARANCE IN A NEW "RULE IN THE STAIT UV KAINTUCKY"

The following letter appeared in the Louisville Democrat

BROOKSVILLE, Oct 19, 1868

A wonderful phenomenon has recently made its appearance on Willow Creek in Bracken county, about two miles from Brooksville and has been seen by quite a number of worthy citizens of the county Our people have been in a constant state of excitement since it first made its appearance

On the 10th inst as one of our citizens a prominent tobacco merchant residing in Brooksville was returning home from the southern portion of the county where he had been buying some crops of tobacco and being belated, was riding along the road when suddenly he beheld a frightful object in the middle of the road immediately in front of him I will give you the description of it as I heard it from his own lips

The object was about six feet in height and walked upright The face was at times that of a man very pale with curls of flame falling over his shoulders eyes of sulphurous blue changing constantly in size one moment large as a tin cup and then gradually decreasing in size until it was almost invisible Its arms were those of a man and hands deadly pale In one hand it held a torch and in the other a sword that seemed to be about four feet in length Its lower extremity was that of a horse with legs well proportioned and hoofs as those of a horse Its tail was about three feet in length and was of flame Its breath was a solid sheet of fire which vibrated with the heaving of its breast like the pendulum of a clock It was certainly the most frightful object I ever beheld It walked off to the side of the road and then vanished When it disappeared I immediately put spurs to my horse and galloped by the spot where I had first seen it When I arrived at the summit of the hill about two hundred yards off I looked back and saw the object in the spot where I first beheld it I stopped my horse and watched it for a moment It walked over to the left side of the road and mounting a rail fence that stood there commenced running towards ... I did not stay to see the remainder of the drama

He immediately rode to town and having told the adventure to some of the citizens they immediately formed a party and started out to see the ... lawyers doctors preachers and ... armed with guns and pistols made their way ... to the scene of this strange adventure ... When they arrived at the spot ... the spectre ... there ... not see ... It was when they saw it on the fence and running rapidly along ... just the ... for the distance of a quarter of a mile ... several fired at it but with no effect

At about eleven o'clock it vanished and was seen ... Since then it has been seen every night at the same place Hundreds ... have been on hand every night and the excitement is ... and is increasing The cause of this is beyond human ... It has only been about a year ago since ... The county is ... people are eager to get rid of their unwelcome ... This is the whole narrative

Will not some philosopher explain the cause of this wonder?

Spirit of the State Democratic Press

The ... paper which was published at Eugene City some time ago in the interest of the Democratic party and suspended for want of patronage, has started again. It comes out just in time to chronicle the ... Democratic defeat, and ... its leading article to the most mournful lamentations over the result. That our readers may be enabled to comprehend the height and breadth and depth of Democratic grief we copy a portion of this jeremiad:

The American people have again spoken in the wild excitement of party faction ... engendered by war ... the ... of the nation. The last dying spark of American liberty has gone out and thick gloom darkens our land. The people have said that Grant, the great military dictator, shall rule over them for the next four years and perhaps during his natural life. The result of last Tuesday verifies the predictions made by the Democratic party that the fanatics of the North and carpet-baggers of the South led by Sumner, Greeley and ... military satraps, will centralize our government into an oligarchy or absolute military despotism. Freemen of once proud Columbia, you have been standing for the past eight years and listening to the syren voices of smooth tongued demagogues. You have believed that the endearing name of "loyalty" to your government was the fountain of all excellence, and that rallying to the cry "Union" was following the destiny marked out for you by your creator. While you have been trapped by these deceptive influences you have been led by your leaders to revere that higher law doctrine until it is no longer a virtue to admire the greatness and wisdom of our forefathers. The chains of mental slavery have been forged by the cyclopean arm of power and the action of the 3d inst., has bound you to the earth to groan with fellow slaves. The election of Tuesday has decided for the time being that a higher order of statesmanship, peerless virtue and true greatness must give way to the groveling instincts and brutal passions of a swaggering soldier.

The Albany Democrat endeavors to find consolation in the belief that the Republican majorities will be something less than heretofore reported. This is the philosophy of Nasby, who claimed a great Democratic victory in Maine because the Republicans expected 23,000 majority in that State and got only 22,000. We quote from the Democrat:

There is no disguising the fact that there has been an unprecedented amount of lukewarmness and torpidity in the ranks of the usually lively and buoyant Democracy since the nomination of the national ticket. From these causes combined with several others which we do not desire to enumerate at the present, we have sustained a disastrous defeat, and one which may be fraught with serious consequences to the people of the United States. We shall probably next week, be able to give the result of the entire vote of the United States, and confidently believe that the first reports will be considerably modified in our favor, though certainly not sufficient to warrant us in hope for success. In the meantime let the Democracy stand firm by their principles and batter away at the bulwarks of fanaticism and Radical corruption and in the end we will crush them out of existence and purge American politics from their foul stain.

This postponement of a Democratic triumph from year to year and decade to decade, is becoming rather irksome and disheartening to the present generation of Democrats. "Next time," "next year," "four years hence," are words which cease to inspire hope. Thus saith the poet:

> To-morrow, to-morrow and to-morrow
> Creeps in this petty pace from day to day
> To the last syllable of recorded time.

And so it appears to be with the prospects of a Democratic victory.

The Herald is not satisfied with the manner in which the case of the rebellion has been argued and decided. Therefore it seeks to reopen the whole case and has actually commenced to argue it anew. In the face of the repeated declarations of the people that the late rebellion was a wicked, criminal and inexcusable attempt against the life of the nation, and that its authors shall ever be held odious as rebels and traitors, and while the thunder of the popular voice, uttered in the late elections, is declaring this with tenfold more emphasis than ever before, the Herald, laboring in the name of the Democracy, makes another effort to justify the rebellion. We quote from that paper:

The "rebel" of to-day is a rebel in the same sense, and in the same degree, that Washington was—no more, no less. Each asserted the inalienable right of the people to establish and maintain for themselves independent self government, and took up arms in defense of that right. Washington made no war upon the King, government or people of Great Britain; he only demanded for the people of the American Colonies the right to govern the land which they possessed. The people of the seceding States did nothing more, nor demanded anything more; they made no war upon the Government or the people of the adhering States, but simply attempted to establish for themselves an independent government, subject only to the consent of the people in possession of the territory embraced therein. * * * When we cease to honor rebellion—that principle and that spirit which incites men to hazard life in defense of liberty, or the right of independent self government—we shall be recreant to our blood and false to the memories of the men who achieved the independence of our country by rebellion.

There is one fact which the editor of the Herald seems incapable of learning and it must, in truth, be said that his party appears to be equally unable to comprehend it. That fact is this. Until the Democracy "cease to honor" the late rebellion they will never know a political resurrection.

Has Become a President at Last

The State of California, or rather the Democratic party of that State, offers an asylum to Mr George B McClellan. Having in view the great Democratic example of Robert E Lee they propose to make McClellan President of a College. This is a timely offer to a broken down and very needy and seedy politician. McClellan has no resources left and may therefore be glad to accept this position. He has been traveling in Europe for four years on Belmont's money, but it is now well understood that Belmont refuses to stand further drafts on his bounty and has therefore cut "Little Mac" off. As the Democracy are making provision for their slaughtered Presidential candidates, it is proper that they should also do something for Seymour. If McClellan declines this offer of his California admirers perhaps the place may be offered to the philosophic Horatio. They must see the injustice of giving Seymour the cold shoulder while making such a magnanimous offer to his defeated predecessor.

It must be generally apparent that the election of McClellan as President of the University of California is a very ill advised proceeding. No man ought to be chosen to such a position who has been so prominently identified with either of the political parties. In this case it is clearly an act of partisanship and must produce very wide dissatisfaction.

Little Mac has become President McClellan at last. A Democratic board ... of a University has done the job for him.

The vote of San Francisco was as follows: For the Grant electors 12,182; for the Seymour electors, 13,708. Democratic majority, 1,426. Democratic majority last year ...18. Republican gain in the city ...92.

In New York City, before the election over 169,000 names were registered, an increase of over 41,000 since last June. Such an increase as this would be impossible unless the grossest frauds had been perpetrated.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAY

Its Heroes.

THE GRAND CONCEIT OF TOM BENTON.

The Pacific Railway is probably the greatest civil job ever undertaken by any government always excepting of course war. No expedition ever undertaken compares with it in expense or hazardless. Not the building of St. Peter's nor the fortifying of Paris, not the diking of Holland. Perhaps the building of St. Petersburg more nearly approaches our enterprise in speed and working numbers.

As a proposition it involved little originality or daring conception, and, like every great thing, the idea was accomplished by agitation. Asa Whitney first brought it forward, in 1846, and pounded away at it for four years. Senator Tom Benton was the political godfather of it, and his son-in-law John C. Fremont, was the path finder. The surveying parties which started out to locate its line were respectively commanded by Governor Stevens, Captains Gunnison, Pope and Whipple, and Lieutenants Williamson and Parke, most of whom were afterwards brave Generals against the rebellion, and Captain since General Humphreys selected that route of the six surveyed over which the inter oceanic trains will go. He was appointed by Jefferson Davis, Secretary of War under whose auspices the War Department went solidly into the work. Government has paid enough for this work to have built the road and owned it, but the experience of the past is that States cannot run canals and railroads without making them highways of public corruption. All the commonwealths, nearly, have had to sell their public works.

The Pacific Railroad will probably be choked up one fifth or more of the year. Expert observers state this as their view, and say that the covered galleries or sheds, designed to protect it, will prove inefficient. What influence the road will have upon the fortunes of the splendidly equipped line of Pacific mail steamers, we can only guess. The Hudson River railway has not run off the Hudson River steamboats, and in any event the mail company will have the benefit of the carriage to China, so that railroad and steamship will only play into the pockets of each other, and probably as is common with powerful rival corporations, be finally amalgamated.

It will be just forty years at the opening of the Pacific Railway since the first locomotive engine was landed at New York. Less than half that number of years ago, we connected the lakes and the Atlantic by rail.

The other day I published somewhere, perhaps in the Commercial some novel anecdotes of Tom Benton, the principal projector of the Pacific Railway, whose statue stands in St. Louis to-day, looking westward along the line, aquiline and grim as in life, with his cloak folded around him. From the same source I have obtained other personal reminiscences, one or two of which I send you as pertinent to the theme of this letter.

Shillington is an Irish bookseller here of credit and renown. Benton was a neighbor and friend of his, and made Shillington cut out of books and newspapers every conceivable article upon the Pacific Railway and bring it to him. He also employed Shillington to select from the Congressional Globes, which were brought to his house in C street by the cart load the matter that he wished in publishing his Abridgement of the Debates of Congress.

"It was a strange and remarkable study," said Shillington, "to see that old man lying there flat on his back, unable to rise, his spectacles poised on the tip of his nose looking through the long debates whose huge folios he held on his breast. He knew that he had but a week or more to live and he was running a race with death to get the book finished, for he believed that it was the vital thing to keep the country together. He used to send me word four or five times a day to come up there, and the people said that I was his slave. If I did not come promptly on time, the old gentleman seemed to feel that I was in some way derelict in my duty to the country. One day, when the shop was full of people, word came down 'Mr Benton wants you to come at 2 o'clock to help him on an important matter.' As soon as I could possibly leave, I went around to his dwelling and found him asleep, breathing very hard with a large volume of the Globe on his breast. I lifted the book off and set it on a table a little out of reach. Then seeing that he did not yet awaken, I hastened back to my work. In about two hours I returned, and the old man looked very severely at me.

'I sent for you, sir, two hours ago. I have but a month at most to live, sir, and it is very important for the country that this book shall be finished before I die. You did not come, sir.'

"'Yes! Mr. Benton, I did. And I found you asleep.'

"'I have not slept for fifty hours, sir! It was impossible that I could sleep, sir, with so much on my mind!'

"Benton never trusted a man that told him a lie, so I found it necessary to clear myself.

"'Mr. Benton,' I said 'you were asleep, with a volume of the Globe on your breast when I entered the room, and I found you breathing hard so I put the book on the table yonder.'

"The old man's eyes lighted up.

"'Well now, sir,' he said, 'I know I had that book on my breast, or on the bed somewhere, and I wondered how it got off there so far. Perhaps I did doze a little unconsciously. But come, sir we must get to work. I have but a little time to do a great deal of work in.'

"Dr Hall and his colleague, to prolong the life of Benton, opened the old man's abdomen and taking out his bowels, while he was still conscious, proceeded to cleanse them. At one place they found some grape skins, then they found bits of wood, which he used to chew abstractedly while writing or reading.

"'Look on, gentlemen,' said the old man, very feebly, 'I dare say you will find Congressional Globes next.'

"When Benton was about to die, so vital did he think his advice was to the country, he sent for Buchanan, had the door closed and solemnly devoted his last hours to impressing upon the President his opinion of the mode in which the country should be administered. If ever there was a man," concluded Shillington, "who thought that in his mind and reason lay the true destiny of the Union, it was Tom Benton. His family, his fame and his future were all subordinate to his love of country."

THE EAGLE CROWS.

Not to lose sight, in Benton's reminiscences, of this main question. It is to be said that few men have had happier opportunities for usefulness than seem to open up before General Grant. He has the debt of the war to carry, but among the results of the war itself may come some lucky discovery, or commerce, that will carry us into hopefulness, as after the Mexican war we found the worth of California.

Is there any man, between a gin mill and the Manhattan Club, who can not rise to some enthusiasm at the certain and speedy prospect of a consummation like the opening of this railway? If not, at least, as elevating as the largest of the statement theory about a white man's government and the celebrated Constitution of the United States. Almost at a wink, the naval theatre of the world is shifted from the Atlantic to the Pacific. There are the future Trafalgars and Lepantoes—there go down the next Alabamas and Guerrieres.

The Atlantic becomes as old as the Indian Ocean, the Gulf of Mexico is the Black Sea, the Chesapeake is the Euxine, the Narrows of New York are the Dardanelles. Prowess going to the Pacific on errands of conquest will take higher estimates of some pioneers that we have called mere adventurers. Ward, and Bourgeoisville and Walker will perhaps rank as high as Champlain and La Salle. The experience of the largest charities, the submission of our race to the quaint ... climatic and social tests, extraordinary collisions between remote races—these are some of the certainties that grow vivid to us as we look down the groove of this railway. Is China worth more than to bleed? Will Russia not be demonstrated to be our real rival and enemy? Is it not to be the next bubble of speculation? Shall we take Mongol and drive them from us, as we did the darkey? Will that young nation of Australia not become the central British Empire and meet us afresh on the Pacific as we met her a century ago on the Atlantic. Crushed from the galaxy of great States in that sea, how can it hold upon the new ocean how will France rank. What hope has Germany but by engraftment upon us Angles or upon Russia?

Or will this new ocean around fact the Atlantic, become what it was named by the prescience of its discoverer, no arena for victory, but a pacific realm, consecrate to the peace of men as courteously dwelling on its broad bosom, loving each on its breast as on a ... pleasure ... evening friends sail and speak together after the toils of the day?

SWELL.

Important discoveries of ores are being found in various localities of Coos and Curry counties. Quite an excitement is now agitating the people of these counties in consequence of the discovery of a rich gold bearing quartz ledge at Salmon Gulch, 40 miles northeast of Port Orford. A rival company supposed to be in the interest of San Francisco capitalists are pretending to claim the ledge as a spur from an unknown ... ... mine of theirs, which will probably lead to litigation. Some silver and copper ores have been found in various localities of Curry county, which will ultimately prove a fine field for the miner and the mineralogist. We obtain these facts from the Sentinel.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 10

Story of a Fillibustering Expedition

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The World has a detailed account of a fillibustering expedition alleged to be fitting out for Cuba. Two thousand five hundred men go from New York, eight hundred from Boston, three thousand from New Orleans and detachments from Mobile. The leaders are said to be Gen. Harvey Hayes, Col. Henningsen, Col. Gerald Gibbons and Col. James Kerrigan. The whole story wears the look of a canard.

General Grant in Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The Mayor, Aldermen and several members of the political clubs visited General Grant to-day and formally tendered him a public reception, which Gen. Grant declined.

New York Matters

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—In a speech at Albany to-day Mr. Hoffman alluding to the idea of contesting his election which he obtained by 30,000 majority advised the Republicans to accept the result cheerfully as had been the case with the Democrats many times in the past.

It is stated on good authority that John A. Griswold will not consent to have his name used for candidate as U. S. Senator.

Admiral Farragut came quietly to this city this morning. He maintains strict privacy. The Franklin remains in the lower bay.

The United States grand jury brought two indictments against persons concerned in the national election frauds.

Tennessee Matters

NASHVILLE, Nov. 10.—Gov. Brownlow's message was read in the Senate to day. It congratulates the country upon the election of General Grant and for the bountiful harvest. He recommends the sale of the six railroads now in the hands of the Receiver, on behalf of the State, the proceeds to be applied to the reduction of the State debt; recommends discrimination in regard to the extension of franchise—giving it only to those who have given evidence that they accept the situation in good faith and withholding it from those who still remain hostile to the government.

Goldwin Smith in America

ITHICA, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Professor Goldwin Smith arrived to-day. He will at once enter upon his duties in the Cornell University.

Miscellaneous

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 10.—Yesterday a locomotive exploded at Titusville, killing the engineer and fireman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Money is easier and a drug at 7 per cent. on call with some transactions at 6 per cent. Among the lenders are some parties closely identified with the great "Bear" combination. It has let out over $5,000,000 since Saturday. The same parties are however, extending their lines by borrowing on time, and there may be another looking up of greenbacks when people don't expect it. The "Bull" clique who have been manipulating gold, realized heavily this morning.

Government stocks are unsettled and closing steady at a decline. The operations are mainly on the "Bull" side. Considerable amounts are held by parties who believed the Secretary would take them off their hands at good prices.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The steamer Colorado was successfully docked at Hunter's Point to-day. The water was pumped out of the dock in two hours and everything worked admirably.

Mr Levi Keller died last night of gout in the stomach.

Ben Nickerson has sued out a complaint against Tom Fitch for alleged libel, and the latter was arrested upon his arrival from Washoe last evening.

Last night, Miss Julia Laebern was thrown from a wagon, the wheels of which ran over her head making several serious wounds.

A Grant Union celebration will take place on Saturday evening under the auspices of the Grant Invincibles.

According to the Bulletin's table of election returns, Grant's majority is 647. Every county has been heard from.

The panic in New York is now said to be past. A telegraphic dispatch from a reliable source under date of New York, the 10th, just received says there is no panic. Money is much easier. Stocks and government bonds have mostly recovered from the decline.

STATE ITEMS

Several persons have left Jacksonville to settle in Goose Lake valley. Among them are Dr Greenman, Will Greenman and A. Tenbrook.

A Lane county paper says: According to the Assessor's book, the number of acres of land assessed is 214,158. Number of cattle, 12,195; of sheep, 84,981; hogs, 18,035.

A large band of sheep, recently driven across the Cascade mountains was caught in the fire which has been raging, and several hundred of them were burned so that it became necessary to kill them.

The Ensign is surprised at the ability of Roseburg to keep up appearances and says: "The great wonder is that Roseburg has grown to its present size under the 'fostering' care of the man after whom it is named." Rather rough.

To-night (Friday) the Republicans of Salem will have a grand demonstration over the great victory won last week. The Aurora band will be on hand. Torches and transparencies in large numbers have been prepared for the occasion.

The Salem paper tells of a case of a boy being arraigned in that city for stealing a coat. He plead guilty. In extenuation of the offense and to make his fine as light as might be, parties acquainted with him stated that he had been kicked and cuffed about by his parents until he was driven to a wrong ... ... sadly demoralized. What a fearful reckoning is in store for those parents!

The ... says: The suit brought by Mulkey ... ... against Major Rinehart, ... damages for alleged false imprisonment ... ... was tried last week in ... ... for Lane county and submitted to the jury, who failed to agree. It has leaked out that the Democratic members were for assessing the damages at 9,000, but the Republican members ... somewhat, their figures being about $100 less. The jury was discharged and the case continued.

A letter from Curry county to the Sentinel says: The fire in the Coast mountains has been the most terrific and destructive known to the whites. The densest and most impenetrable woods and brush are swept away as with a besom of destruction. One old hunter in Curry county states that he found the carcasses of a large band of elk that had apparently been surrounded by fire and unable to escape. All the houses, fences, barns, etc. at Port Orford, excepting the residences of Capt. Tichenor and Mr. Burnap, were burned. Mrs. Tichenor is now in a critical condition from burns received in saving her house.

The Forty First Congress

Throughout the Northern States the Republicans have lost in the late elections about ten members of Congress, most of them by the unpopularity of the candidates. But they have elected enough to have a large majority though probably not two thirds when the Southern members are all in. The loss of a few Congressmen is however a positive gain to the party. Having the Executive with them the Republicans will not want two thirds, and it is better both for the party and the country that the strength in the House should be more evenly divided. It will keep down faction among the Republicans and prevent impracticable men from pushing their measures forward. If Butler had also been defeated the mass of the Republican party would have had no regrets to express.

In the Senate the Republicans are continually growing stronger, though there is less to fear from the great preponderance of a party in that body. The only Senators we have lost are Wade of Ohio, Conness of California and Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, while we have gained a Senator in each of the States of Connecticut, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, Indiana, and Wisconsin and secured the return of about a dozen other Republican Senators whose terms will expire on the 4th of March next. The Republican strength in Congress during Grant's Administration will be fully as great as it is desirable to have it.

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NATURE that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will secure good to him, and that he shall avoid those acts which may occasion a loss to him or his family he is a member of. In conformity with that law, it is the duty of every person to purchase of Kohn & Fishel all the goods they may be in need of. The fair sex who certainly are always most happy to comply with all things beneficial to themselves and families, should not fail to examine the fine and extensive stock of Kohn & Fishel, and they will confess their stock of Dry Goods to be of superior quality and at figures below other houses. Men more bold and less calculating than our fair ladies should be reminded that Kohn & Fishel indeed, are the leaders of fashion, the lowest in price, and no man should wear clothes unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's, No 91 Front street.

Special Sale OF CHOICE HOMESTEAD LOTS.

I WILL SELL AT MY AUCTION SALES ROOM ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21ST, At 10 o'clock A M,

Six Acres of Land,

Situated in Mrs W W Chapman's Land Claim. Being that beautiful and fertile Garden Spot, situated between Col Chapman's residence and Grove known as the

"CANYON GARDEN."

The above described property will be sub-divided in Lots containing about an Acre each and will give purchasers a front on Madison and Jefferson Streets, when mentioned streets are cut through and graded.

The pleasant situation of the above mentioned Lots coupled with many other advantages, such as abundance of fine Spring Water from Creek that runs along the line of the entire Property, the fertility of the soil and its convenient situation (being only ten minutes walk from the Court House to the premises described) holds out many inducements for parties who desire to invest in property for homestead purposes.

TITLE PERFECT.

TERMS—One-third Cash. Deferred payments can remain at option of purchaser, secured by mortgage on the property, with interest at one per cent per month.

WOLFE'S CELEBRATED AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself, exclusively, at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.

In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys, its efforts are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 3,000 letters from physicians, endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing districts. Is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the dangerous and often dangerous effects produced on the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable, the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys ... the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS! Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in

Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps is sold by all Grocers and Apothecaries.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps is recommended by all the Medical Faculty.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps is imitated and counterfeited and purchasers will have to use caution in purchasing.

WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS,

Imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE of New York expressly for medicinal and private use.

WHAT DO YOU DRINK! Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps.

It checks the Disarrangement of the Bowels.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,

DENTIST.

OFFICE—South west corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

I am now making, among numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH the Improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 186..., the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold. It not only makes the plate ... as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.

N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

DR. JIM.

The Chinawoman who was shot in the breast and arm by her crazy husband at Salem a few weeks ago has been entirely cured in three weeks time by the skill of this celebrated physician.

(Signed) MRS. SHOFY.
Witness W. O. BAILEY.

The Bitter Fruits of Bad Bitters.—Invalid reader, do you know what nine tenths of the bitter compounds you are advised by the proprietors to accept as universal panaceas are composed of? Give heed for a moment. They are manufactured from impure fiery alcohol, containing a considerable portion of fusel oil, a poison almost as deadly as prussic acid. The basis of the regular tincture of the Materia Medica is the same. No amount of herbal extracts can ever neutralize the malignancy of this pernicious element. The essence of sound Rye thoroughly rectified is the only stimulant which can be safely used as a component of a Tonic, Alterative and anti-bilious medicine, and HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is the only medicinal preparation in the world in which this article is used as an ingredient. Hence the extraordinary effects of this great specific. It gives strength without producing excitement. No other Tonic does this. All the ordinary Bitters flush the face and affect the brain. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS diffuse an agreeable calm through the nervous system, promote digestion and produce sleep. No other tonic so quickly revives the exhausted physical energies, restores the appetite and removes the gloom and depression which always accompany the loss of the bodily powers.

HODGE, CALEF & CO.,

Eureka.—Archimedes is said to have uttered this word, on finding out, after long and patient study, a method of detecting the adulteration of King Hiero's crown. So many others (after suffering for years with Consumption) have said when they tried NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP and found that it cured them.

Florida.—"The land of flowers," where nature scatters with her generous hand beauty and fragrance, and burdens every zephyr with delightful odors. Such is REDINGTON & CO.'S FLORIDA WATER.

Cooper's Balm.—Though it may not be infallible, it will stand the test with any other single compound in the world, and ought to be in the possession of every Family, Traveler, Mariner and Boatman. Your own experience is the best testimony that can be had in reference to it; therefore prove it for yourself, for it is a remedy to be at hand for every time of need, and is emphatically the PEOPLE'S MEDICINE.

WHY SHOULD MEN INSURE THEIR LIVES,

AND PAY ONE COMPANY FROM 10 TO 30 PER cent more than another? The difference in rates is equivalent to a dividend in advance of that percentage and for which the party insuring is not dependent upon the success of the Company, as he has that amount in his own hands. The

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

WITH NEARLY

$5,000,000 Assets,

Charges a person aged 30 to draw his money at age of 40 less than any Company doing business in OREGON as the following example shows:

Northwestern	$95 26
New England	106 23
Mutual	104 68
Manhattan	118 10

THE NORTHWESTERN

Will loan a member a portion of the premium. This VIGOROUS COMPANY is now issuing 1,100 policies a month and ranks among the 25 New York companies, third in number of members, fifth in amount of assets. IT IS A PURELY MUTUAL COMPANY, having no stockholders to absorb a portion of the profits. It makes its ten payment policies non forfeiting after one payment for one-tenth.

All companies doing business in Massachusetts make sworn statements of business, on the 1st of January of each year to the Insurance Commissioners of that State. The report of the Commissioner for the year ending December 31, 1867, shows as follows:

	Paid Stockholders	Assets to liabilities excluding capital	Average rate of interest earned	Ratio per cent of total expense in receipts
Northwestern	Purely Mutual	119.17	8.05	27.81
New England	Purely Mutual	113 97	6	35 35
Mutual Life	Purely Mutual	108 71		25 5
Manhattan	40 000	117 49		8 90

The Agents of the Company have the Massachusetts and New York Reports for the inspection of any parties interested in Life Insurance.

Parties about insuring should investigate this Company. We claim to be equal to all and superior in plans to many companies.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER NOS. 698 AND 621 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

Endurance

How much the heart may bear and yet not break
How much the flesh may suffer and not die
I question much if any pain or ache
Of soul or body brings our end more nigh
Death chooses his own time till that is worn
All evils may be borne.

We shrink and shudder at the surgeon's knife
Each nerve recoiling from the cruel steel
Whose edge seems searching for the quivering life
Yet to our sense the bitter pangs reveal
That still although the trembling flesh be torn
This also can be borne.

We see a sorrow rising in our way
And try to flee from the approaching ill
We seek some small escape we weep and pray
But when the blow falls, then our hearts are still
Not that the pain is of its sharpness shorn
But think it can be borne.

We wind our life about another life—
We hold it closer dearer than our own
Anon it faints and falls in deadly strife
Leaving us stunned and stricken and alone
But ah we do not die with those we mourn
This also can be borne.

Behold we live through all things—famine thirst
Bereavement pain all grief and misery
All woe and sorrow life inflicts its worst
On soul and body—but we cannot die
Though we be sick and tired and faint and worn
Lo all things can be borne.

Good Words

The Loss of Hooker

A TOUCHING TRIBUTE TO A STRICKEN AND BEREFT SOLDIER

George A Townsend whose military campaigns well fit him for the task, pays in the Hartford Post, this tribute to the genius and character of Gen. Joseph Hooker, the hero of Lookout Mountain, who has lately been retired from the army

A graver topic comes to me, and to you also, in the loss of the name of Joseph Hooker from the roll of the army Few can take his place in talent, and who in beauty and fame? He was the Henry Clay of soldiers generous, instinctive reliable electrical He opened battle at the moment on order When McClellan said at Antietam

"General Hooker will advance on the right at seven o clock," they woke at headquarters to hear his first cannon break the morning, as if the second-hand of his watch had been the fuse to fire it He was the promptest soldier known to either army Some were too proud, others too irresolute, some lymphatic, he was cheerful, yet remorseless at times, and, as a lover not of carnage, but of fair battle few ages afford his match

He was the handsomest man in vital beauty I ever saw Decatur must have looked like him His nostrils and his eyes were not fire but light, never blazing with intense feeling but shining like dawn He was the perfection of manly, American beauty as we conceive it, when all our heterogeneous tribes shall be wedded into one patriotic homogeneity with the English dew and the bronze of our Autumn most manifest His walk the turn of his knee, the straightness of his thigh and leg, the exquisiteness of his foot, what gentleman can forget? And likewise his waist and chest, almost a woman's! They grew into a pair of shoulders, that the epaulette never enchanced The carriage of head should have touched a nun Raphael would have made him pose for St Michael The last time I saw him was coming down the steps of the Astor House and turning to look at him, a stranger said to me

"Who is that?"

"Joseph Hooker!"

"He's beautiful, sure!"

When the war began, Hooker was living in straits in California. His appearance had been a temptation to him, and he filled no very [illegible] and dutiful use among mankind He embarked at once, with only his sword, and when I saw him first he commanded a brigade in the army of the Potomac, and was encamped behind McClellan's line of doom bound entrenchments, in the corps of Keyes, I think, perhaps Heintzelman among the very nearest troops of any to Richmond Kearney was his neighbor, and the two were the first to observe McClellan s boyish and irrpacinate incompetency Kearney was rash enough to speak his mind, and Hooker was [illegible] enough It was at their camps I first heard the distrust of McClellan. The latter, meantime, was thick as persimmons with these men, Slocum, Baldy Smith, Fitz John Porter, Andrew Porter, and Hancock The latter of these was the only one that came to fortune, and the former the only one that came to desert. Newton has disappeared.

Baldy Smith was always an envious man, and he is said to have written coarse criticisms on Grant recently, which I should believe Porter we know, who nearly reached the apotheosis of Admiral Byng Hancock is the best rewarded man of the army according to his "heft." [illegible] is a Seward Democrat, and I always believe him to be both a soldier and a gentleman At last the romance of "Little Mac" was "whaled" out of him by the tremendous attack of Stonewall Jackson Then the "ins" was out and the "outs" went in I was at [illegible] when Hooker commanded the army, but [illegible] have told me of his bearing there—[illegible] and in decisions equal to the place, but in caliber of mind perhaps unequal to the [illegible] charge of a great army He did not [illegible] so. Certainly he made the best of that [illegible] till Gettysburg came to look after it, for the battle of Gettysburg was the combined victory of the Lieutenants and Marshals of the Army of the Potomac, christened by Reynolds, God-fathered by Meade, and by none better befriended than by John Sedgwick

When Hooker was removed by Halleck he rode out of the camp indignantly and reappeared to the country in the brilliant tableau of Lookout Mountain

I doubt not that he would have won the battle of Gettysburg as well as Meade did and been more the personal hero of it but possibly his quick temper and fine self-esteem (which recall Henry Clay always to me,) would have made him less useful clerically to Grant afterward, for Meade was Grant's will ing and diligent clerk Sometimes I believe that if Hooker had held the Army of the Potomac to Gettysburg, he, and not Grant, would have received the sword of Lee, and that Grant would never have been called East except in charge of Sherman's army For Hooker, without great girth of brain, had more life than any soldier I ever saw. His contempt of geography was like Sherman's He loved fighting and going forward as much as Sheridan And his enterprise was like Pizarro's As an orator he was one of the finest among soldiers As a candidate for President Zachary Taylor would have been Sancho Panza compared to him, for with victory and his magnetism he would have beaten Thomas Jefferson before the people This is talking of the irrevocable, but many soldiers will agree with me in it while all of them will admit that it was better for the republic that the common sense head of Grant should carry these intoxicating laurels, rather than this fair Alcibiades, with his brilliance his ambition, and his adventurous spirit

As it was, Hooker at the end of the war was a revived and satisfied man perceiving himself that the good genius of the country had ordered well

In Cincinnati he met in the prime of life and intelligence one of the most splendid ladies of the country, the sister of William S Groesbeck (lately the President's counsel,) a lady whose pure and elevated character had been strong enough to decline matrimony in the mere spring of life He found her in the mid summer of her days fair as a girl composed as a wife and the last of his conquests was the highest testimonial ever given to his person and his character

Now the soldier began to feel what he had vaguely appreciated before that which Bonaparte died unconscious of the [illegible] of happiness of social domestic life He took command of the department of New York his friends rejoiced at his good fortune no such presence walked Broadway

In the height of all the blow came He was paralyzed

His wife carried him to Europe, reduced as he was from a Mars to a cripple In all of this he searched for health the wife of his was in her prose [illegible] [illegible] with care and diligence They returned together to New York not long ago and Hooker seeing his old Quartermaster LeDuke, of Iowa, coming to see him said

This is all there is of Joe Hooker!

They wept together like women

At Watertown, the other day, the noble wife of the General died He has resigned his commission God s ways are past finding out

Mr Zachariah Wilson Portland, Oregon, writes

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago, of long standing entitles Dr Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Ear-ache, Distressing Pains etc"

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil, dollar bottles, as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply J ENGLISH

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon s Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horribly destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weakness, the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue feted breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and have been too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
Address DR J F GIBBON 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco Post Office Box 252.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER

The Loss of Hooker

A TOUCHING TRIBUTE TO A STRICKEN AND DEFEATED SOLDIER

George A Townsend whose military campaigns well fit him for the task, gives in the Hartford Post, this tribute to the genius and character of Gen. Joseph Hooker, the hero of Lookout Mountain, who has lately been retired from the army

A graver topic comes to me and to you also in the loss of the name of Joseph Hooker from the roll of the army Few can take his place in talent and which in beauty and fame? He was the Henry Clay of soldiers, generous instinctive reliable, electrical! He opened battle at the moment on order When McClellan said at Antietam

"General Hooker will advance on the right at seven o clock they woke at headquarters to hear his first cannon break the morning as if the second hand of his watch had been the fuse to fire it He was the promptest soldier known to either army Some were too proud others too irresolute, some lymphatic; he was cheerful, yet remorseless at times and is a lover not of carnage, but of fair battle few ages afford his match

He was the handsomest man in vital beauty I ever saw Decatur must have looked like him His nostrils and his eyes were not fire but light, never blazing with intense feeling but shining like dawn He was the perfection of manly, American beauty as we conceive it, when all our heterogeneous tribes shall be wedded into one patriotic homogeneity with the English dew and the bronze of our Autumn most manifest His walk, the turn of his knee the straightness of his thigh and leg, the exquisiteness of his foot, what gentleman can forget? And likewise his waist and chest, almost a woman's! They grew into a pair of shoulders that the epaulette never enchanced The carriage of head should have touched a man Raphael would have made him pose for St Michael The last time I saw him was coming down the steps of the Astor House and turning to look at him, a stranger said to me

"Who is that?"
"Joseph Hooker!"
"He's beautiful, sure!"

When the war began, Hooker was living in straits in California. His appearance had been a temptation to him, and he filled no very high and dutiful use among mankind He embarked at once, with only his sword and when I saw him first he commanded a brigade in the army of the Potomac, and was encamped behind McClellan's line of doom bound entrenchments, in the corps of Keyes I think, perhaps Heintzleman among the very nearest troops of any to Richmond Kearney was his neighbor, and the two were the first to observe McClellan's boyish and irresolute incompetency Kearney was rash enough to speak his mind, and Hooker was indignant enough It was at their camps I first heard the distrust of McClellan The latter, meantime, was thick as persimmons with these men, Slocum, Baldy Smith, Fitz John Porter, Andrew Porter, and Hancock The latter of these was the only one that came to fortune, and the former the only one that came to desert Newton has disappeared.

Baldy Smith was always an envious man and he is said to have written coarse criticisms on Grant recently, which I should believe Porter we know, who nearly reached the apotheosis of Admiral Byng Hancock is the best rewarded man of the army according to his "heft" Slocum is a Seward Democrat, and I always believe him to be both a soldier and a gentleman At last the romance of "Little Mack" was "whaled" out of him by the tremendous attack of Stonewall Jackson Then the "ins" went out and the "outs" went in I was abroad when Hooker commanded the army, but others have told me of his bearing there—vitally and in decisions equal to the place, but in caliber of mind perhaps unequal to the vast charge of a great army He did not think so, Certainly he made the best of that place till Grant came to look after it, for the battle of Gettysburg was the combined victory of the Lieutenants and Marshals of the Army of the Potomac, christened by Reynolds, God fathered by Meade and by none better befriended than by John Sedgwick

When Hooker was removed by Halleck he rode out of the camp indignantly and reappeared to the country in the brilliant tableau of Lookout Mountain

I doubt not that he would have won the battle of Gettysburg as well as Meade did, and been more the personal hero of it but possibly his quick temper and fine self-esteem (which recall Henry Clay always to me,) would have made him less useful clerically to Grant afterward for Meade was Grant's willing and diligent clerk Sometimes I believe that if Hooker had held the Army of the Potomac to Gettysburg, he, and not Grant, would have received the sword of Lee, and that Grant would never have been called East except in charge of Sherman's army For Hooker, without great girth of brain, had more life than any soldier I ever saw His contempt of geography was like Sherman's He loved fighting and going forward as much as Sheridan And his enterprise was like Pizarro's As an orator he was one of the finest among soldiers As a candidate for President Zachary Taylor would have been Sancho Panza compared to him, for with victory and his magnetism he would have [illegible] [illegible] Jefferson before the people This is [illegible] of the irrevocable, but many soldiers will agree with me in it while all of them will admit that it was better for the republic that the common sense head of Grant should carry those intoxicating laurels, rather than this fur Alcibiades with his brilliance his ambition and his adventurous spirit

As it was Hooker at the end of the war was a revived and satisfied man perceiving himself that the good genius of the country had ordered well

In Cincinnati he met in the prime of life and intelligence one of the most splendid ladies of the country, the sister of William S. Groesbeck lately the President's counsel a lady whose pure and elevated character had been strong enough to decline matrimony in the very spring of life He found her in the mid summer of her days fair as a girl composed as a wife and the last of his conquests was the highest testimonial of [illegible] to his person and his character

Now the soldier [illegible] to feel what he had vaguely apprehended before that [illegible] Bonaparte [illegible] the dignity of happiness of social domestic life He [illegible] command of the department [illegible] New York his friends rejoiced that his good fortune now set his presence with Broadway

In the height of it all the [illegible] was paralyzed,

His wife carried him to Europe [illegible] but was [illegible] and [illegible] his search for [illegible] was in her presence [illegible] with care and diligence They returned together to New York not long ago and Hooker, seeing his old Quartermaster LeDuke, of Iowa, coming to see him said

This is all there is of Joe Hooker

They wept together like women

At Watertown, the other day, the noble wife of the General died He has resigned his commission God's ways are past finding out.

Mr Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon writes;

It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago of long standing, entitles Dr Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Earache, Distressing Pains etc.

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches I have not felt any rheumatism since I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for these complaints I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil dollar bottles, as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply J ENGLISH

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr. G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and directions for use for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and because too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
Address DR J F GIBBON 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco Post Office Box 252,
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER
Consultations FREE.
